SUPPORTING OUR LIBRARY

Dedicated to becoming a lifelong learning center for the Marshall area, Marshall District Library invites all of our visitors to explore, discover and grow through our collections, programs and services.

Marshall District Library houses an expansive collection of more than 60,000 books, audiobooks, music, and movies as well as specialized spaces for youth, teens, meetings, and local history research. With more than 400 programs each year, Marshall District Library serves the community through after-school enrichment activities, adult programs, early literacy support and extensive educational and recreational partnerships with organizations in the Marshall area.

Binder Park Zoo brings visitors to Marshall District Library

Public donations allow the Library to maintain and grow these resources, programs and services to meet the needs and wishes of our community.

MANY AREAS FOR GIFTS

GROW OUR COLLECTION

Honor a friend or loved one by donating funds for the purchase of materials for the library collection in their name. Each book contains a personal dedication label and a letter is sent to inform the recipient of the purchase. Many individuals in the Marshall community choose to honor someone's memory in this way.

SPONSOR A MAGAZINE SUBSCRIPTION

Marshall District Library subscribes to more than 100 magazines and newspapers. By sponsoring a magazine subscription, your name or your company's name will be placed on the cover of the magazine to inform the public of your support.

SUPPORT PROGRAMMING

Many local businesses support the library's summer reading program and winter reading program. Additionally, local foundations and groups in the area have supported after-school activities such as the AMAZE program and After-school Arts Apprenticeship Program. These sponsors are acknowledged in a yearly advertisement as well as press releases for specific sponsored events.

REVITALIZE OUR BUILDING

Marshall District Library is committed to creating a safe and comfortable environment for all library visitors. Support special collections, rooms, equipment and projects such as re-carpeting and renovating the library space.

OTHER WAYS TO DONATE

HUGHES GIFTS AND GRANTS FUND

In 1921, Miss Elizabeth Kerr Hughes, one of the founders of the original Marshall Public Library, left the library a legacy of $5,700 which has since grown as others have chosen to leave bequests or participate in planned giving to Marshall District Library. Mrs. Vyda Mumby also contributed a significant bequest to this fund in support of youth services. These funds are used to supplement regular library services. Please contact Library Director, Angela Semifero, if you are interested in contributing to this fund.

MARSHALL COMMUNITY FOUNDATION FUND

Marshall Community Foundation holds a local fund for support of Marshall District Library projects and activities. Please contact Sherry Anderson, Foundation Director, at 269.781.2273 for more information.

USED BOOK DONATION

Each year AAUW of Marshall and Marshall District Library hold two book sales. Book donation information is placed in the local newspaper several months before each event.

ACKNOWLEDGING YOUR GIFT

Acknowledgement letters are sent to the donor, honoree, and/or family of the honored individual. Used Book Donors may request a receipt upon donation.
